These Changing Times

Some ex-miner musicians who once played here at Placerita under the direction of Mr. Thornton, now at Hart High School.

Each day of our lives things change all around us, but we do not seem to be really aware of them until enough time passes to make the changes really noticeable.

For instance, since World War II, about twenty percent of the U.S. population has moved annually, and one-third of all families with husbands under thirty-five move each year. It is also nothing new in America that more and more people have moved from farms into the cities, but now we have developed the "megapolis" as, since 1960, two of every ten rural families have disappeared from the farm scene.

Another big change since World War II is working wives and mothers, as women now represent thirty-four percent of the nation's work force.

Today, early marriage is another significant change. In 1946, only one percent of married men were eighteen or under, while today that figure is eleven percent. It is also estimated that at least twenty-five percent of today's married couples will divorce.

In 1940, thirty-five percent of high school graduates went on to college, while in 1965 this figure jumped to fifty-four percent and this did not include specialty schools. This, of course, caused over crowded conditions in colleges and universities and greater pressure on students to get higher grades.

In these times, because of greater knowledge and the new "wonder drugs," people now live longer and the over-65 population has increased considerably. With this increase, senior citizen developments and countless trailer parks have sprung up all over the country, especially here in the Southland.

With the shorter work week and many new labor-saving devices, people now have more leisure time and many spend it trying to get close to nature as is evidenced each year by the crowds of people who jam into our national parks, causing an environmental threat.

These are only a few of the changes that affect us each day of our lives. As you read and look through the 1973 Nugget, perhaps you will be more aware of what is happening all around you.

Some Pictures From Past Albums

On this page are some pictures of the faculty a few years ago and some of them have changed considerably while others look quite the same as they did four or five years ago.

Mr. Nogales, left, was a teacher of Spanish at the time this picture was taken and Mr. Tanner was a counselor.

If you want to see what these same people look like today, turn to the curriculum section.

Mr. Thornton, below right, now a band director at Hart High, was our band director at Placerita.

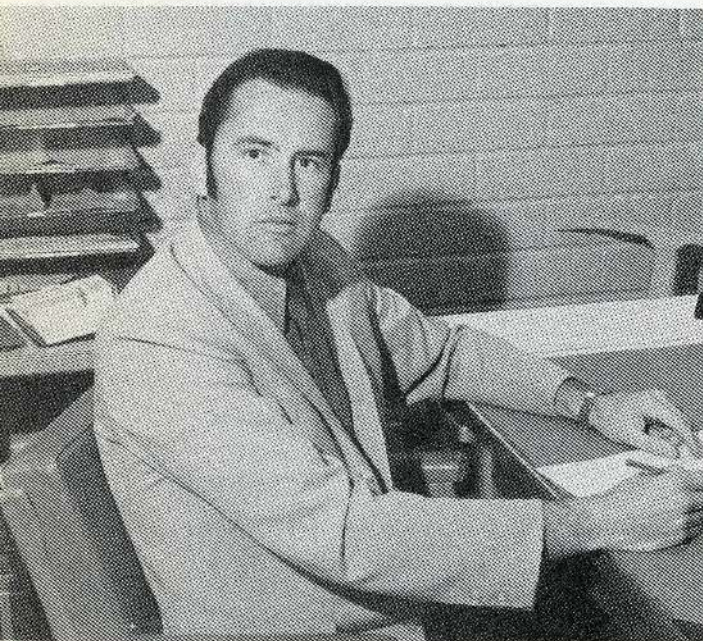

Principal's Message

In a world of change, it is of great importance to have our school experiences recorded and preserved so that we may look back and reminisce of days gone by - days that were filled with accomplishment, friends, and fun. This pictorial parade of junior high life is made possible through the efforts and abilities of the Nugget staff. I wish to extend to them my personal thanks along with the appreciation of the entire staff and student body. We will be forever grateful to them for providing this excellent capsule of the year's events.

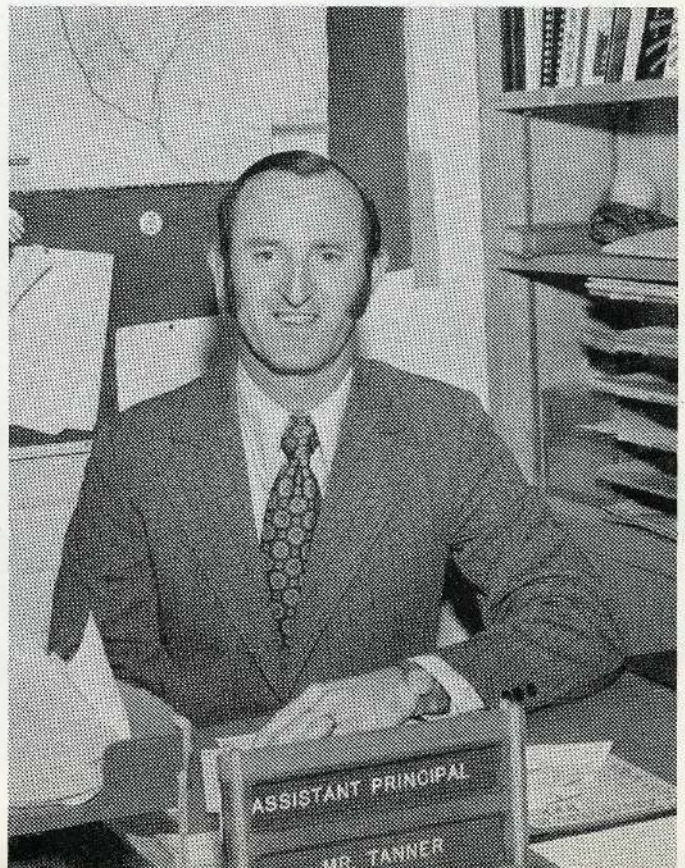

The year was marked not only by the personal achievements of some fourteen hundred Miners, but was noteworthy for successes in sports, production of a spring musical, a myriad of activities by various clubs and organizations, and the ever present Placerita spirit and pride. These are the qualities that are instilled in each Miner who attends Placerita Junior High School. It is these traits that will serve each of you well as you leave here and go to other schools and added experiences. They will provide you with a solid base upon which to build your future in a world of changing times.

Mr. Tanner, Asst. Principal

Mr. Curwen, Dean

Counselors

The counselors at Placerita have not changed a great deal throughout the years, but some changes have been made. In past years, Mrs. Nossaman and Mr. Tanner were counselors and it was then decided that three were needed, so Miss Lind was hired. When Mr. Tanner became an assistant principal, Mr. Nogales became a counselor.

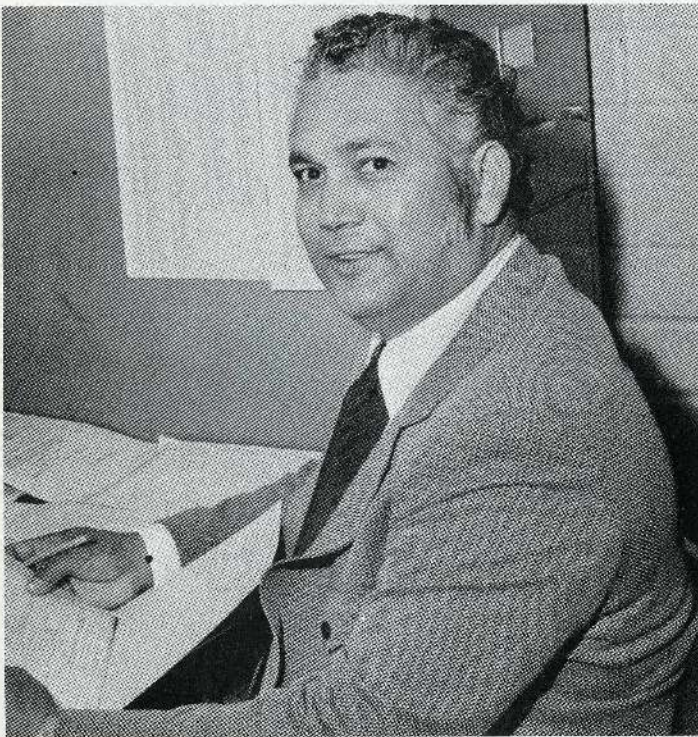

The counselors still perform many varied tasks for both students and teachers. Their job includes counseling students for many different reasons, testing, scheduling, and other tasks too numerous to mention.

If we go way back in time to when Placerita was first started, there were only two administrators, the principal and counselor, vice principal and everything else.

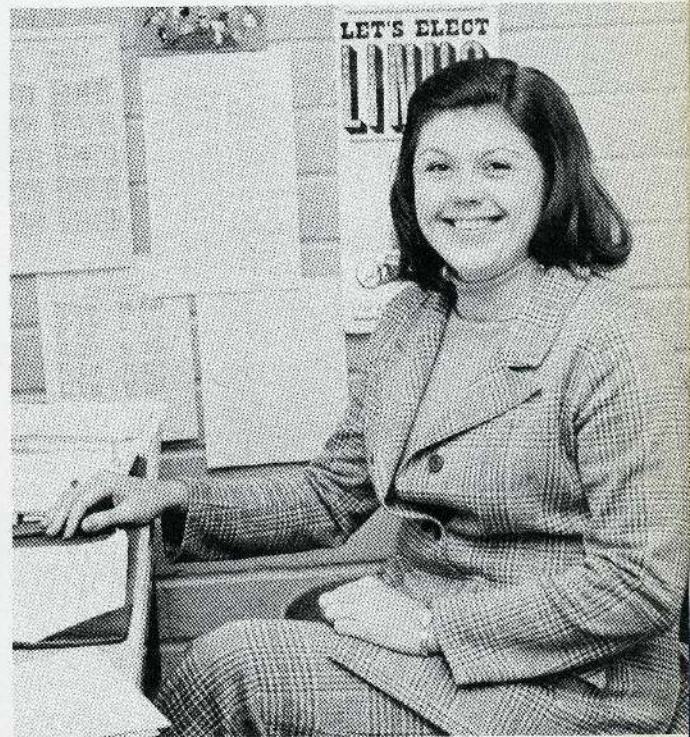

It was a wise decision indeed when the district hired counselors to act as counselors.

Mrs. Nossaman

Mr. Nogales

Miss Lind

Classified Personnel

This group of helpful people includes all the personnel of the school who are not certificated to either teach or administer the affairs of the school.

The jobs are again varied. Mrs. Hunt, lower left, keeps our lunch and brunch lines moving with hot food prepared on campus, while the other ladies shown help with clerical work, act as teacher and noon aides, and assist the librarian with various library and text book tasks. Not shown are the custodians who perform the important function of keeping the school neat and clean.

Curriculum

English

Mr. Martin, chairman, lectures to a 9th grade class, Mrs. Franklin listens to a student give an oral presentation, Mrs. Emard is presenting material to a 7th grade class, and Mrs. E. Smith assists Greg Bitgood in stenciling the newspaper.

On page 11, Miss Rogers is showing a picture of a man being healed via acupuncture, Mr. D'Addario consults with boys in 9th grade class, and Mr. Hottel lectures to a group of 9th grade students.

Science and Foreign Language

The area chairman for the Science and Foreign Language Departments this year was Mr. Keil.

Shown here is Mrs. B. Smith explaining Spanish articles to a Spanish class, Mr. Hartman lecturing to a science class, Mr. Keil explaining a scientific procedure, and Mr. Tavares recording data.

Mathematics and Business Education

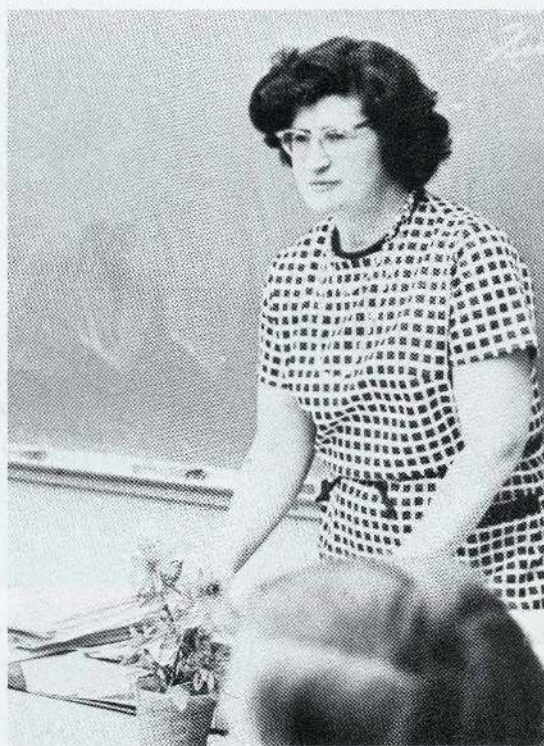

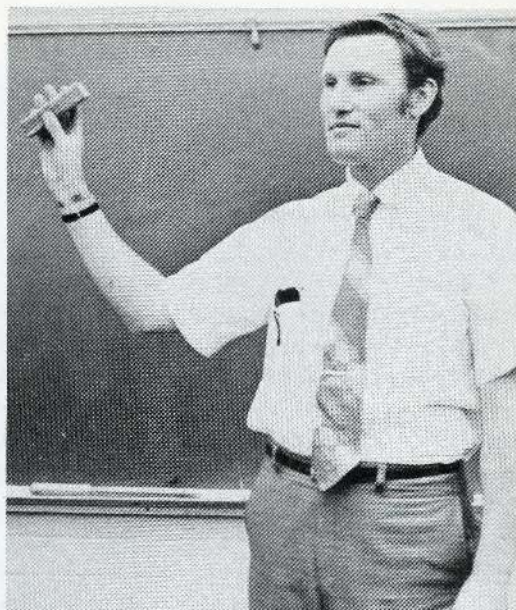

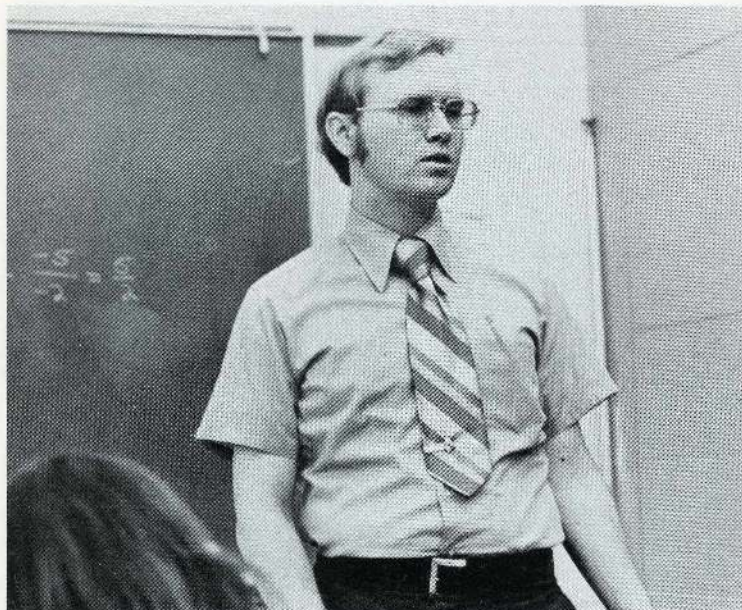

The math and business department was headed up this year by an old pro, Mrs. Tyler. The math lab functioned under the supervision of Mrs. Jeanette Davis.

In the pictures here, Mr. Fogg just can't bear that answer and Mrs. Kawada helps a student with a typing problem.

On the opposite page, Mrs. Robinson, Mr. Lund and Mr. Posthumus all work in front of the class, while Mrs. Tyler helps a student with a particular problem.

Physical Education

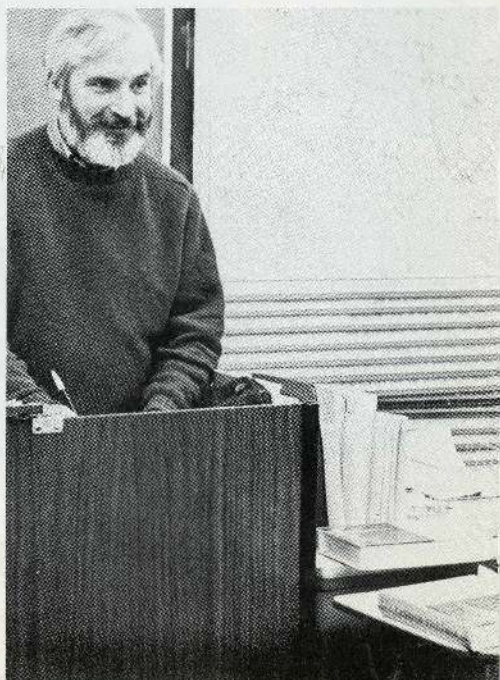

A new chairman and a new teacher appeared this year in the Physical Education department. Miss Lord is teaching girls' P.E. classes, along with Mrs. Davis, who also doubles in Math. Mr. Allmandinger is the new chairman.

Here we see Mr. Allmandinger at the parallel bars, Mr. Phillips at the assembly, Mrs. Haskell umpiring at a softball game, and Miss also umpiring another softball game.

Social Studies

The Social Studies Department has now been combined into an area which includes Physical Education, under the chairmanship of Mr. Allmandinger.

Below and to the left we see the Social Studies teachers at work; Mr. Kerr lecturing to a seventh grade geography class, Mr. Russell helping a student, and Mr. McGrath lecturing to an eighth grade U.S. History class.

The Arts

Mr. Boyd is chairman of both the practical arts and the fine arts of PJH. Shown here, Mr. Boyd is helping a girl in shop with a project.

Mr. Bosh is flying model airplanes that the students learn to construct in class, Mr. Hasler helps a student in metal shop, and for the homemaking side of the practical arts, Mr. Evert demonstrates how to make biscuits, (it doesn't look as if it is the kind that Grandma used to make) Mrs. Esterberg demonstrates a knitting stitch for her Home Arts class, and Mrs. Samuelson works with girls from a clothing class.

On the fine arts side of things, Mr. Capra helps with a painting project and Mr. Elliott oversees students working.

Miner Niners Groove With the Times

The Niner class of '73 participated in many activities throughout the school year.

Represented here are the Miner Niners involved with the annual winter party, (Winter Dreams are Forever), Lori Cameron on the telephone, the Drill Team at McDonald's while on a field trip, Michelle Forcey at work in English, and last but not least, Heidi Thaley way out in front on her tricycle during the big race last fall.

A Little Culture — if You Please.

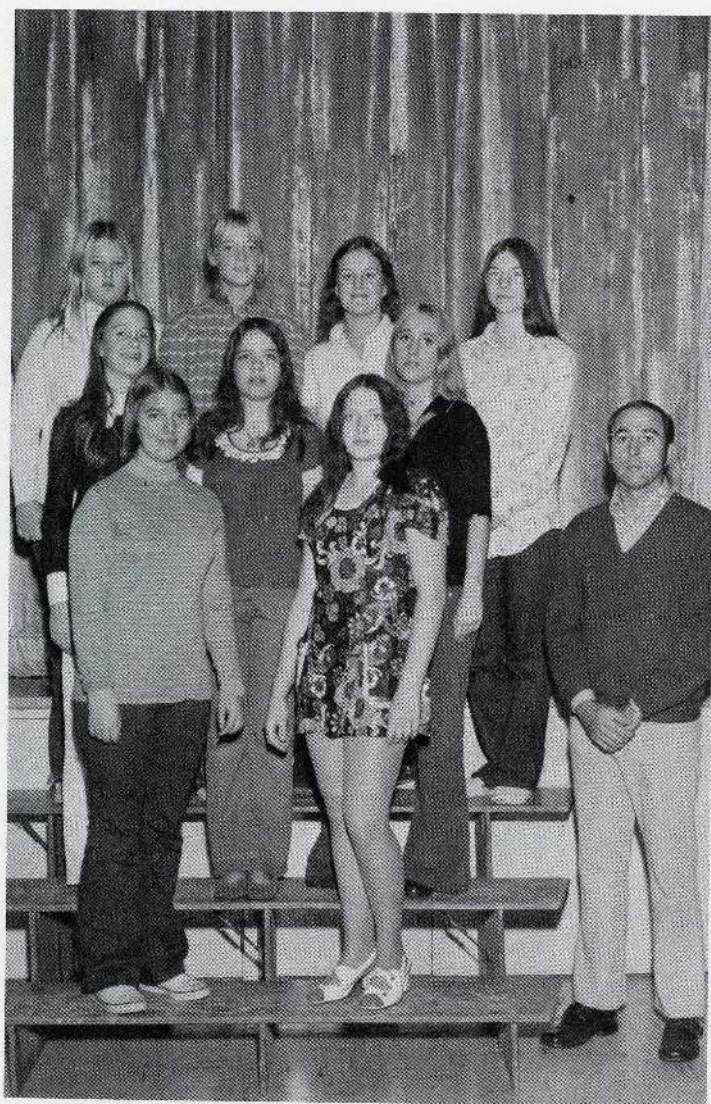

The Golden Oaks Club, still under the leadership of Mr. Evert, is somewhat smaller this year, but still functioning as usual. Their primary job is to help new people find their way around campus, help lost parents during Back to School Night and Open House Night, and just be all around helpful Miners.

The guitar club is something new this year and was sponsored by Miss Lind and Mr. Lund. They get together every week to play their guitars, exchange knowledge and music and generally have a good time.

The Gold Dust (school newspaper) was sponsored again this year by Mrs. E. Smith after Miss Rogers had it for two years. Since both beginning students and the Gold Dust Staff were in a combined class, the paper only came out the first semester once a month. Efforts were made the second semester to get the paper out twice each month.

The Honor Society is still under the leadership of Mr. Russell. Two induction ceremonies were held this year and many new students were taken into this fine scholastic organization. Congratulations to all those who made it or who managed to stay a member in good standing!

Sports Clubs

Several new sports clubs were started this year, among them the ski club under the leadership of Mrs. Seifert, the bowling club under the leadership of Mrs. E. Smith.

The golf club continued to operate under Mr. Hartman and the gymnastics under Mr. Allmandinger. Mrs. Davis had the tennis club. G.A.A. had a new leader in Miss Lord.

Music, Music, Music

The music department, under the leadership of Mr. Brown and Mr. Christian, has had an active year.

The band, directed by Mr. Christian, appeared in the Christmas Parade in Newhall, at some football games, and several assemblies.

The chorus, under the direction of Mr. Brown, sang at several assemblies and also entertained some elementary schools in the area.

Both groups participated in the Winter and Spring concerts.

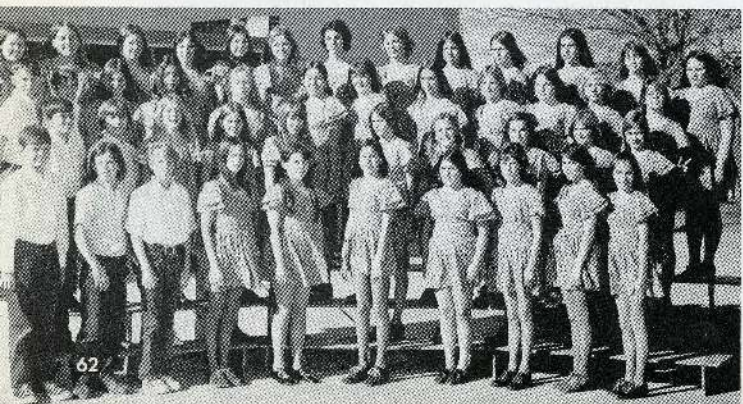

For the first time, Placerita's music and drama departments combined together to put on a musical production, "On with the Show."

Football and Basketball

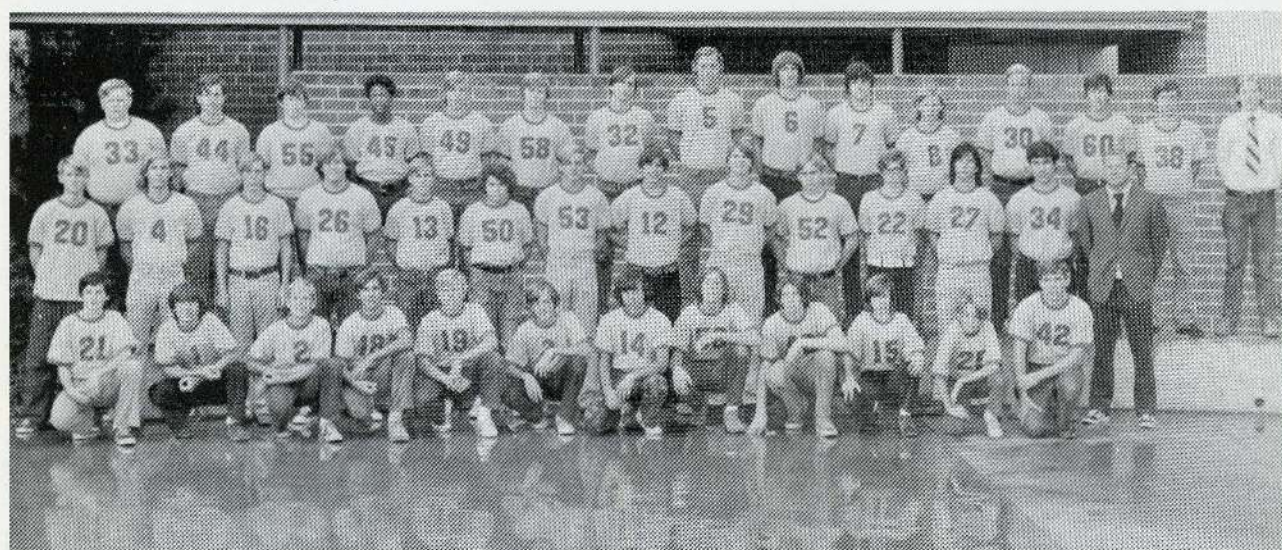

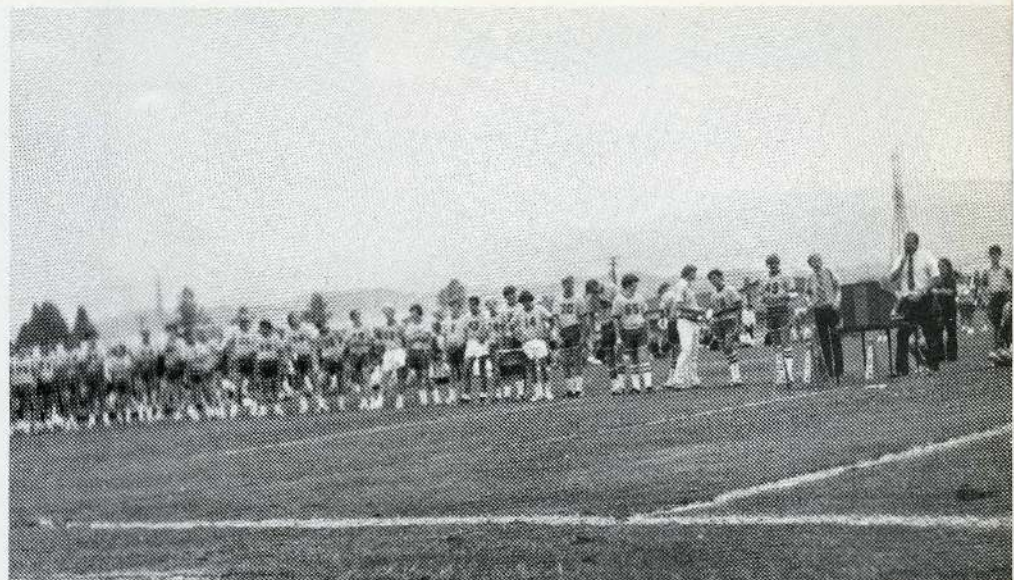

This year, the football team was coached by Mr. Phillips. They played six hard fought games, but were not successful in winning any of them. This is very unusual for our football team and we will be looking forward to the fall season. The team played well in spite of the losses.

The basketball team, coached for the first time this year by Mr. Droz, played twelve games and won ten for an outstanding season. Congratulations to both teams and both coaches for games well played and for the spirit shown throughout the year.

Baseball and Wrestling

The wrestling team, coached by Mr. Allmandinger, had a great championship season, winning all their league matches and winning the trophy and a good portion of the medals in the final championship meet.

The baseball team, coached by Mr. Phillips, was just getting under way when the Nugget went to press. The first game was to be played on our final deadline day.

From the Editors Desk

Our Nugget Staff this year was a hard working one. We put together the yearbook with the theme "Changing Times."

Kerri Harris has our thanks for designing the cover. The artwork was very well done by Marshall Commons and Sherry Benninger.

I would also like to thank our photography editor, Marshall Commons and our layout editor, Paul Patane. Lisa Lynch, last year's editor and now a member of the Hart yearbook staff also deserves credit for helping us meet our final deadline.

Our special thanks goes to Mrs. E. Smith for advising us and for putting in long hours after school and on weekends to make the yearbook what it is.
