"ROAREN OREN" PROSSER

Being fairly new to the Super Track scene myself, I imagine much has been written about the "wizard of Saugus Speedway" Mr. Oren Prosser. The only five-time champ, Oren won the top division crowns in '64, '69, '70, '71 and '72. The name "roaren Oren" fits him like no other. Many people have told me of his ability to put a race car in places where they shouldn't go, and still get away with it. Thus far this season, Mr. Prosser has displayed his ability in the Bryan Miller Camaro, many times over.

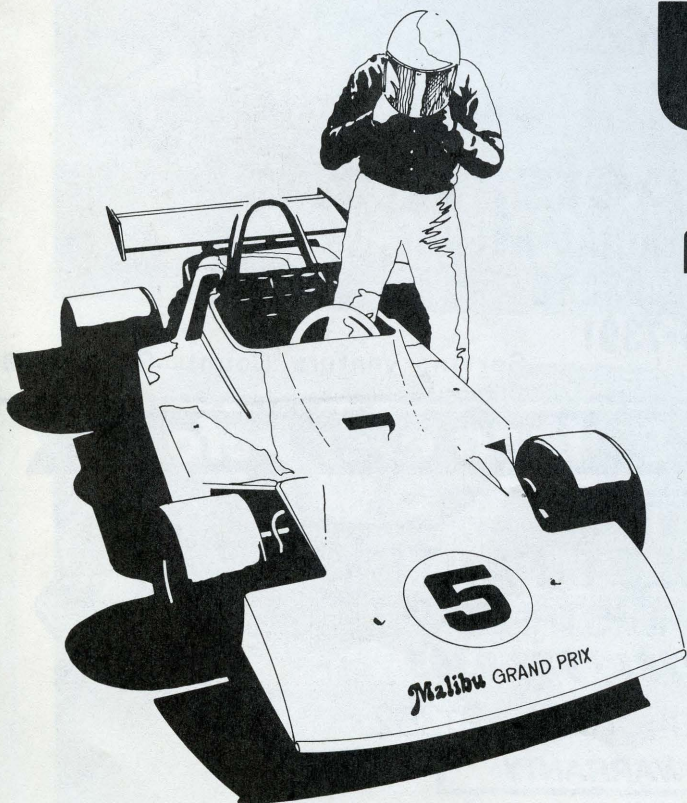

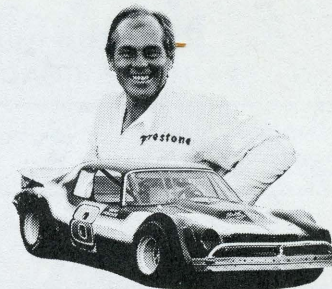

Oren was born in Long Beach on September 1, 1940, and he's a graduate of San Fernando High, class of '59. We never did get around to just exactly when he first started racing, but the number 18 seems to ring a bell. In Oren's words, "Racing has given me the chance to meet more people, see more country and earn more money than I ever dreamed of." He was reluctant to talk about any really bad racing experiences because according to Oren, "Racing has been good to me." Having won the Permatex race at Riverside two years in a row, '73 was not his year. In that one, He stacked up a car and broke a leg in 21 places, but he and the rest of are fortunate he's still around to talk about it.

Oren's current ride is the Bryan Miller Camaro with a Jackson chassis and Fischer small block motor. Bryan is crew chief and John & Carl Moore, Donnie Shirer and Bob Wang make up the rest of the number 8 crew. By the way, if you're in the neighborhood of Balboa and Sherman Way, stop in at Prosser Automotive....The coffee pot's on there too.

Oren and his wife have parted company but the rest of the family includes Doreen, 17, "O. J." (Oren Jr.) 16, and Lisa, 11. I think they've also become dirt track fans, having been to the Ventura track 3/4 midget races several times this season.

The past few years have been rather dry for "Roaren Oren". After winning the '75 Saugus "330", everything kind of "blew up!" Hopefully it'll get better from here on. Thanks for your time, Oren, and best of luck to you from your many fans at the "Super Track".

"Irish"

"PROSSER WINS THIRD STRAIGHT AT SAUGUS"

Five-time champion Oren Prosser roared to his third straight regular season Modified main event victory Saturday night at Saugus Speedway. A packed house of 6,562 race fans enjoyed a perfect balmy evening as a full moon beamed down weaving its black magic, particularly during the Modified feature race. Eleven yellow and two red flag interruptions made for a "stop and go" situation in the 40-lap event.

Sam Price, Sun Valley, led the first two laps from his pole starting spot, then Ken Davis, West Covina, took over for the next four circuits with Prosser going to the front on lap seven.

Reseda's Mike Willard moved into second behind Prosser on lap nine and during a "race to the yellow" through crashed cars blocking the track beat Prosser to the line to take the lead on lap fourteen. The lead was short-lived, however, for Prosser maneuvered past Willard in the second turn and regained the lead on lap eighteen.

At the 20-lap, half-way mark, Prosser was leading Willard with Davis in third. Mike Fortier, Granada Hills, former champion, was running in fourth and Jim Robinson, '77 champion was in fifth.

Prosser, Willard and Press ran the last 20 laps "bumper to bumper" finishing in that order. Robinson moved in to take fourth, Hans Wesski, Simi, was fifth and Davis came in sixth.

Press set a new one-lap qualifying record of 15:99, the first time the sixteen second barrier has been broken during a regular season program. Bryan Brown, Bakersfield, won his first-ever trophy dash. Prosser and Press also won heat races.

Roman Calczynski, Van Nuys, current Street Stock champion took both ends of the stocker events. The victories marked the 13th 14th stocker feature wins of '80 for Calczynski and pushed his point lead total to "uncatchable".

BRYAN BROWN, BAKERSFIELD, WITH TROPHY GIRL DANA WICKERSHAM....
IT WAS BRYAN'S FIRST TROPHY DASH WIN EVER.
