PRESENTS THIS WEEKS DRIVER PROFILE

GEORGE STILES

Tonight's driver being featured is not a driver at the "Super Track", but he drives at Indian Dunes, California City, Las Vegas and lots of other "off road" tracks in his spare time. George Stiles official position at Saugus Speedway is chief Steward. That means he's father confessor, arbitrator, judge, jury, defense counsel and prosecutor for the Olympic Racing Association, and that is as it should be. George has a staff of tech officials, track safety crew, starter & assistant starter as well as a scoring team....All of whom he must rely on to get the job done.

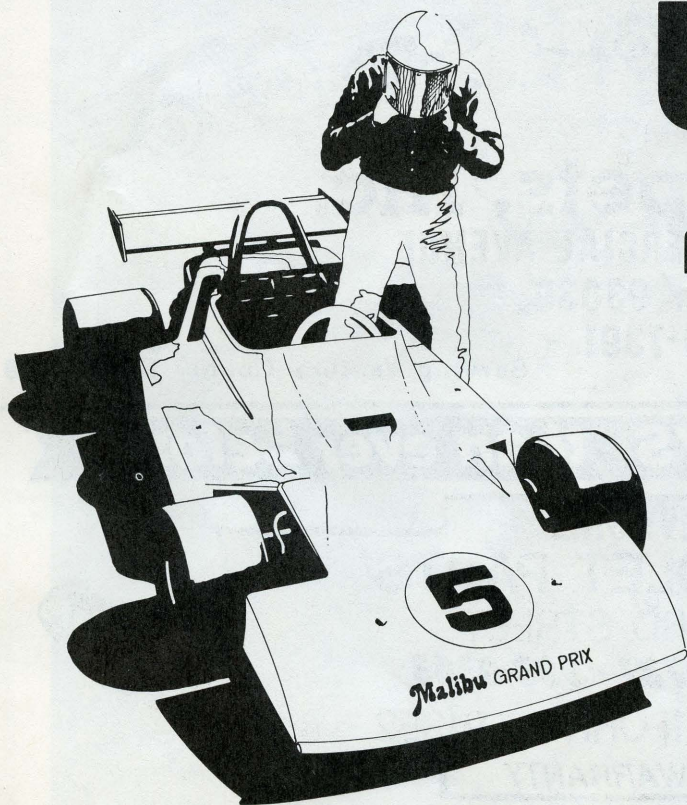

George was born in Santa Paula on September 22, 1947 and graduated from Santa Paula High School. As a matter of fact, he told me He's never lived in a house more than ten miles from the spot he was born. George's racing official experience began in '67 as assistant starter in Bakersfield at the Oildale Speedway. He became a pit steward at Saugus in '68, pit manager in '71, tech director in '73, chief of communications in '76 and in mid 1977 he was appointed chief steward and he's been there ever since. George's wife Brynda began working at the "Super Track's" pit gate in 1972 and has just this season, taken over as chief scorer. Not only is racing at Saugus a family affair for many owners and drivers, but it is for many officials of the O.R.A. as well. Speaking of families, the rest of the Stiles family includes Rod, 13, and Kamie, 11.

Getting back to George's off-road exploits, he took second place in the 1980 running of the "Mint 400" in Las Vegas. That's one tough four hundred mile, four lap race in the desert around Los Vegas. I had the opportunity to announce a race for A.M.S.A. (American Motor Sports Association) at Indian Dunes this year. Four members of the Stiles family walked away with trophies that day. George and Brynda, she got the first place trophy, while George's cousin Jim and his wife Suz anne also took home trophies. His first season the the A.M.S.A. off-road circuit earned him a fifth place finish in points, which was last year.

Though tempers flare occasionally in the pits, George Stiles enjoys a lot of respect on the part of the drivers and owners. The job of chief steward is a thankless one, but I think most people are thankful a man like George holds that position.

George, thank you, and thanks for the opportunity to get a closer look at the man behind the O.R.A.

"ROBINSON WINS THIRD FEATURE AT SAUGUS"

Sylmar's Jim Robinson, 1977 Saugus Speedway champion, piloted the Oval Three Enterprises Monza to victory in the feature 40-lap Modified main event Saturday night at Saugus Speedway. It was Robinson's third feature win of the season and put him within 25 points of Modified point leader Dan Press of Valencia. Press damaged his PDQ Racing Camaro when he brushed the crash wall during the first laps of his qualifying run. He drove the Marshall Aycock Camaro that is usually driven by Tru Cheek, and finished thirteenth, retiring after 31 laps.

Ken Davis, West Covina, led the first six laps with Oren Prosser, Simi, going to the front on lap seven. Prosser, the top qualifier with a 16:16 in the fast Precision Instrument Repair Camaro, was trying for his fourth straight feature win but mechanical difficulties ended his quest during a lap 29 caution period.

Don Lindner, Reseda, inherited the lead at that point with Robinson running second, Mike Willard, Reseda, third, Davis fourth, and Bryan Brown, Bakersfield, in the fifth position.

Robinson and Willard overtook Lindner on the 33rd circuit after Brown and Ken Sapper, La Crescenta, squeezed by Davis on lap 31. Robinson won the dash to the checkered despite a last-lap fourth turn challenge by Willard. Lindner held on for third, Brown was fourth, Sapper, fifth, Davis, sixth and Hans Wesski, Simi, was seventh. They were all running on the lead lap at the end.

Willard won the 4-lap trophy dash, Gary Pike, Burbank, and Walt Price Sr. of Sylmar, former Saugus champion, won the heat races.

Dale Herron, Reseda, drove the Synthoil "100" Chevelle to victory in the 25-lap stocker main. Herron, starting 21st, took over the lead from Rodney Peacher, Sepulveda, on the sixteenth lap. Peacher had led the first 15 laps from his pole-starting position.

Roman Calczyński, Van Nuys, current street stock champion and point leader, finished in second, Luke Koback, Valencia, was third, Bill McKnight, Northridge, fourth, and Dan Challgren, Newhall, fifth. In typical stocker action, fourteen of the twenty four starters were still running on the lead lap at the checkered.

Tim Kerbrat, Reseda, set fast stocker time, Scott Klassen, Ventura, won the trophy dash with Peacher and McKnight taking the heat races.

Wrong Way Willard, Simi, won the crash-shortened 14-lap figure eight finale with Mike Barnett, Newhall, second and Bill Sedgwick, Van Nuys, finishing third.

Calczyński won the dash and Willard won the heat race.
