Track champion Jim Reich drove his Pontiac Grand Am to victory in the initial event of the five-race Western States Championship Series on September 26th

Ferndale's Jimmy Walker was victorious in the 150-lap Shasta Speedway event on October 4th. His victory coupled with a seventh place finish at Stockton the previous week puts him in a first-place tie with Ron Gravelle of Pacific Grove in the series Promoter's Point Fund.

Ron Gravelle, Pacific Grove, was second to Reich at Stockton and finished 6th at Shasta. The points gained places him in a tie for the Series point championship.

INSOLO WINS SAUGUS "330"

Jimmy Insolo, former Saugus and Winston Western champion drove the Trick Instant Horsepower Camaro to victory in the sixth annual Saugus "330" Saturday night at Saugus Speedway. It was Insolo's third win in the six year history of the annual classic and he went home with $5,000 for winning, $320 for leading the final 32 laps and several hundred dollars in contingency money.

There were six lead changes among five drivers during the 220-lap event, run in two 110-lap segments with a mandatory 30-minute pit stop in between.

Only eighty five hundredths of a second separated the starting field of twenty six cars with '77 Saugus champion Jim Robinson, Sylmar, posting a new track record of 15:65 in the Oval 3 Enterprises Monza. Tru Cheek, the '79 Saugus title holder, also from Sylmar, occupied the other front-row starting position by a 15:69 timing in his newly completed, first-time-out #62 Camaro. The last car in the starting field turned in a qualifying time of 16:50, making this the fastest and most competitive of all "330's"!

The qualifying times of Robinson and Cheek broke the old qualifying record of 15:75 set by Dan Press, Valencia, in the PDQ Racing Camaro on July 5, 1980. Press, the '78 Saugus champion, demolished his car during a September 6th qualifying run and due to injuries would only be watching this year's event.

Mike Willard, Reseda, the newest Saugus champion was in the third starting slot beside Jim Thirkettle, Sylmar, also a former champion. Bryan Brown of Bakersfield, started in fifth, Steve Starr, Woodland Hills, in sixth, Insolo in seventh and Oren Prosser, Simi, five-time Saugus champion in eighth.

Prosser won the initial "330" in 1975, Thirkettle was victorious in '76 and Insolo recorded back-to-back wins in '77 and '78. Last years winner, Dave Watson of Milton, Wisconsin, has since retired.

Robinson led the first lap followed by Willard, Cheek, Thirkettle, Starr, Brown, Prosser and Insolo. After ten laps the only change was Prosser and Insolo moving to fifth and sixth, pushing Starr and Brown back to 7th and 8th.

Robinson led the first 21 laps before an oil leak forced him to the pits relinquishing the lead to Willard. Willard's lead, however was short-lived as his differential let go in the front straight-a-way as he completed the thirty eighth lap. Cheek became the leader with Willard out but four laps later, Prosser maneuvered past Cheek to move into the lead.

At the 50-lap mark it was Prosser, Cheek, Thirkettle and Insolo. Starr was running fifth, Don Lindner, Reseda, was sixth, Brown, seventh and Chuck Becker, San Bernardino, eighth.

Prosser ran strong until lap eighty nine, then, as he went into turn one his right-front brake cylinder broke, spinning him into the infield and out of the race.

Cheek resuming the lead, held on to the front spot until the mandatory pit stop after the first 110-laps. Thirkettle was second followed by Lindner, Starr, Insolo, Brown, Ken Davis, West Covina and Becker. They were the only cars still running on the lead lap.

After the intermission, Cheek continued to lead with Insolo moving into fourth on lap 116, to third on lap 130 and getting by second-running Thirkettle on lap 179.

Insolo continued to close on Cheek and on the 188th circuit moved inside and around Cheek in the third turn and Lindner moved into third as Thirkettle spun in turn three of the same lap.

Thirty one laps later Insolo took the checkered victory flag for his third "330" win. Cheek finished second collecting $2,250 plus $1,030 for leading 103 laps and several hundred dollars in contingency money. Lindner finished in third with Thirkettle fourth. Starr, who won the six-lap trophy dash, was fifth and Becker, sixth, both one lap down.

Hans Wesski, Simi, was seventh with Brown, eighth, both three laps back. Greg Scates, Newhall, was ninth, six-laps back and Davis was tenth, eleven laps in arrears.
