WELCOME

The Santa Clarita Valley Boys' and Girls' Club welcomes you to its Fifth Annual Benefit Auction. The auction will be divided into two parts: the live auction, verbal bidding on the major items conducted by Jerry Holland, professional auctioneer, and the silent auction, written bidding for the items on bid boards.

The Santa Clarita Valley Boys' Club is a charter member of the Boys' Club of America, and is headquartered in Newhall. We serve boys and girls ages 7-18 in the communities of Newhall, Saugus, Valencia, Castaic and Canyon Country.

Your attendance at this event and your contributions will help provide recreational programs and facilities for more than 1,000 Santa Clarita Valley boys and girls. We thank you for your attendance and hope you have an enjoyable evening.

"We can work this out."

A very important aspect of the Boys' and Girls' Club program is guidance for young people.

"Where'd the boys go?"

Through the arts and crafts program, boys and girls participated in embroidering and assembling the bicentennial quilt for the auction.

"My snake's smarter than yours."

Fridays are Special Event days where the entire club participates in events such as kite flying, bicycle motocross, special olympics, parties, etc.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a solemn appeal to the Supreme Judge of the world is made for the rectitude of the intentions of the people. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly we have recourse to more than a general Declaration of Sentiments, when we attempt to alter our former mode of Government. We declare, therefore, that the thirteen united States of America, at this time, do, in the name and by the authority of the good People thereof, solemnly publish and declare, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connections between them and the said Crown are, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, enter into Commercials, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, we have signed our names, and have caused this Declaration to be signed by the Delegates of the thirteen united States of America.

1215 OF HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE. A set of four decoupage historical documents on parchment paper to decorate your den or family room. Included are the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, the Gettysburg Address and the first two articles of the Constitution of the United States.
