EINAUDRIN WEGEN - WILLIAM

In my spare time, I usually listen to music or read. I love to read and I consider Barnes and Noble my second home. My most embarrassing moment is probably when I was working out at L.A. Fitness and fell down the stairs. I think I still have bruises from that fall. I want to be remembered as the girl who belted out 'Crush' by David Archuleta every single day just to make Klara Kizirian happy. My inspiration is definitely my mom; even though we look nothing alike, I have a lot of her characteristics, and if I grow up to be at least half the person she is, I am pretty sure I would be set for life. My last words as a high school student are, 'Live life one day at a time and be sure to find something to laugh about in that day and be sure to read Twilight!' My one wish is for there to be more peace and less violence in the world."

Myname is Kevin Svec. In my spare time, I play guitar, listen to music and hang out with my friends. My most embarrassing moment was when I threw up in my backpack in Spanish class in ninth grade. I would like to go to college anywhere they would accept me. Without question, my inspiration is Justin Crissman. In 15 years, I see myself as a billionaire, living off a large inheritance on my own island. If I could wish for anything, I would wish that the movie Twilight would come to life, so I could jump really far and do whatever happens in that book."

My name is Angela Kim. In my spare time I like to go on the computer and watch a variety of shows or dramas. My last words as a high school student would be, 'School is over baby!' For college, I want to go to California State University, Northridge to save money. In ten years, I see myself graduating from a graduate school and getting the job I have always wanted. What I would wish for is that I could do everything I want to do before I die."

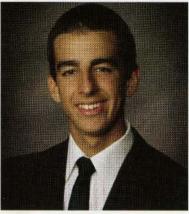

My name is Nick Fritz, In my spare time I play ice hockey, watch scary movies with Hailey and work at the Proshop in the Ice Station. My most embarrassing moment would be when I went to lunch at Hungry Ninja, I got up to refill my drink and on the way back I tripped over a chair, making a big scene. Most of the people there were laughing at me. I would like to be remembered not for being a klutz, but rather for my sense of humor and ability to have fun in any situation. If I could wish for anything, it would be to keep all my friends from high school throughout my entire life. I hope to keep in contact with many people from Valencia and continue to build those relationships."

G'day, I'm Priscilla Valdez. My friends call me Pro Skills. It's a bit ironic because I'm not very good at anything in particular. In my spare time I usually sleep. Occasionally, I hang out with my friends, most of whom I've known since elementary school. I'm inspired by optimists, my family, my friends and the lonely men of Flight of the Conchords. In ten years I hope to be a pharmacist in New Zealand with a husband like Jemaine Clement, If I could wish for anything it would be that we never let robots take over. Think about it. My last words as a senior would have to be, 'I'm not weeping because you won't be here to hold my hand, for your information there's an inflammation in my tear gland.' So yea, lets get in a cab. I'll buy you a kebob.3 name is Erin Emre. ike to research and design moment for press when I get a low grade in my class. Hi my name is Drew Fall. I have to say that I'm sad to see high school coming to an end, but I know it's going to lead me into great things. Valencia High has prepared me to be an adult and to take on the world. I'm looking forward to going to college and starting my career. My wish for the future is that I will become very successful and be able to always keep in touch with my friends. I

I would say my idol would Paul Hewson (also known as Bono). He's such an amazing guy who's really making a difference in the world. My top college changes almost weekly. It's gone from the University of California, Los Angeles to Stanford University to the University of California San Diego to the University of Southern California to my latest which is Pomona college. In high school I'm trying to become a better student and more curious about and more curious about things around me and also to build better relationships with all my friends. Honestly I have no idea where I'll be in five, ten or 15 years - and you know what? That's perfectly fine with me. The journey is the best part, why spoil it guessing at all that could be? I'de lived most of my life 1 Ham Lake, Minnesota This summer I moved to Valencia and I love it here. I'm in the marching band in the fall, drum line in the winter and swimming in the spring. I like to watch high school sports, especially hockey, and go to band competitions. I put a lot into school too and hope to have six college classes done by next year so I can have more fun in college. I wish to still be swimming and drumming forty years de the road.

Al Ro. I'm Kyle Rosauer. I It to be either a police officer or a detective. I like to snowboard, wakeboard, surf and play and watch basketball and baseball. I want to go to College of the Canyons for two years and then transfer to San Diego State University. I want to get at least a 3.5 GPA in high school. In ten years I see myself being a police officer and hopefully married. My idols are my parents because they taught me forever. I wish to be successful in life.

ROP

Ashjian enrolled in the ROP photography class this semester to explore her interest in film photography. Her favorite shooting style is black and white because of its raw nature. Hoping to become a "pro" photographer sometime in the future, Ashjian enjoys the class as her "friends took it with [her] and the teacher explains things very well."

McCorkle has been in the ROP
fire technology classes for one month. He chose this program to investigate what "fire service is all about" and to look into possible
occupations in fire technology. He enjoys the class and currently does "want to be a firefighter."

Mosley has been enrolled in ROP Law Enforcement for two months with the intention of becoming an undercover cop. Through these classes, he hopes to further his career opportunities and build up his confidence. He has really enjoyed his classes which are "quite fascinating" and have "caught [his] interest."

alexandrafictivi DEMOTASON

Since the beginning of her junior year, Hendrickson has been enrolled in the ROP Cosmetology; since she was eight, she has wanted to be a hair dresser. In this class, she hopes to gain the skills necessary to pursue her chosen career. Previously involved in ROP Interior Design, Hendrickson enjoys the creative aspect of Cosmetology. She hopes to attend Harvey Mudd College with a ROP certificate.

Giammarco has been taking a variety of ROP classes for four years and is currently enrolled in Auto Tech. With ROP on his transcript, Giammarco hopes to get into a more prestigious college. He has enjoyed ROP Auto and plans to incorporate it in his career.

Who is your inspiration?

Coutney Adler: The whole varsity team. They are so amazing to watch and they help us out when they can.

Samantha Ralston: Every girl on the varsity team, such as Megan Lavo, Nicole Delange, Christina Worth and more!

What do you love about your team?

CA: Everyone is so interesting in their own way. We always have at least one or two people doing the most random things to make us laugh.

SR: I love my team because there are so many crazy personalities on the team, which is always fun to be around.

What is your most embarrassing moment?

CA: I totally missed my serve and hit a really cute guy in the head.

SR: My most embarrassing moment would have to be when I ran into the ref's stand during the game.

What is the best advice you can give future players?

CA: Keep playing and don't give up. If you get mad, get mad at the ball instead of yourself or your team.

SR: "Go big or go home!" -David Neeley.

If you could change a rule in your sport what would you change?

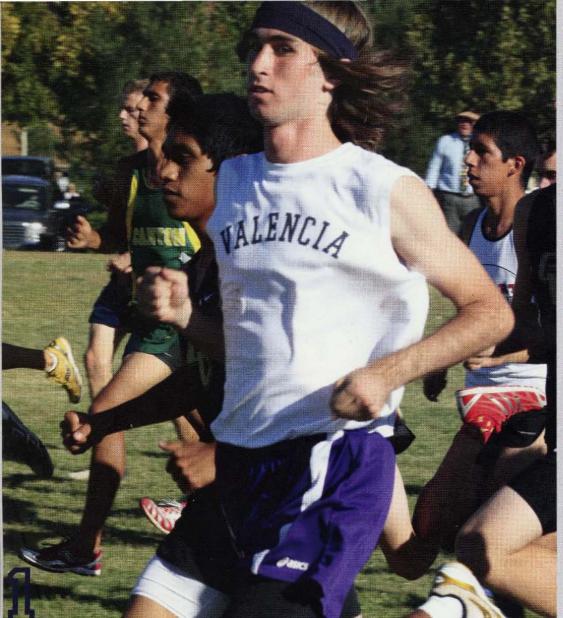

CA: Missed serves shouldn't count for points for the other team because a lot of games are lost that way

SR: I would either lower the net to make it easier to hit/block/serve over or not calling nets, so you could touch the net

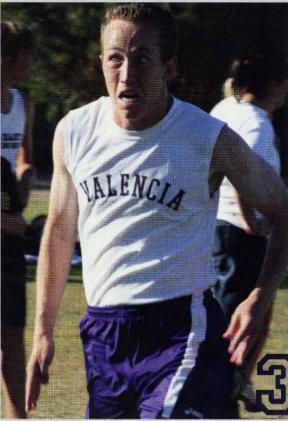

What is your pre-game routine?

CA: My team goes outside in the hall, we have pep talks and we Jigalo in the hall sometimes with juniod varsity and varsity

Adam Bugielski: I've been involved in cross-country since seventh grade.

Carlo Mari Manzana: I've been running cross-country ever since freshman year.

What do you love about your team?

AB: It may sound cliché, but I love all of the people on my team and all of the laughs we share.

CM: What I love about this year's team is that we're all friends and we know each other really well. We're actually not a team; we're an ohana.

What is your most embarrassing moment?

AB: There are way too many of them.

CM: I don't think that I have one.

What is the best advice you can give future runners?

AB: You have to give it your all, one hundred percent of the time and work extremely hard.

CM: All I can say is to run fast, really fast.

Do you plan to run in college? If so, where?

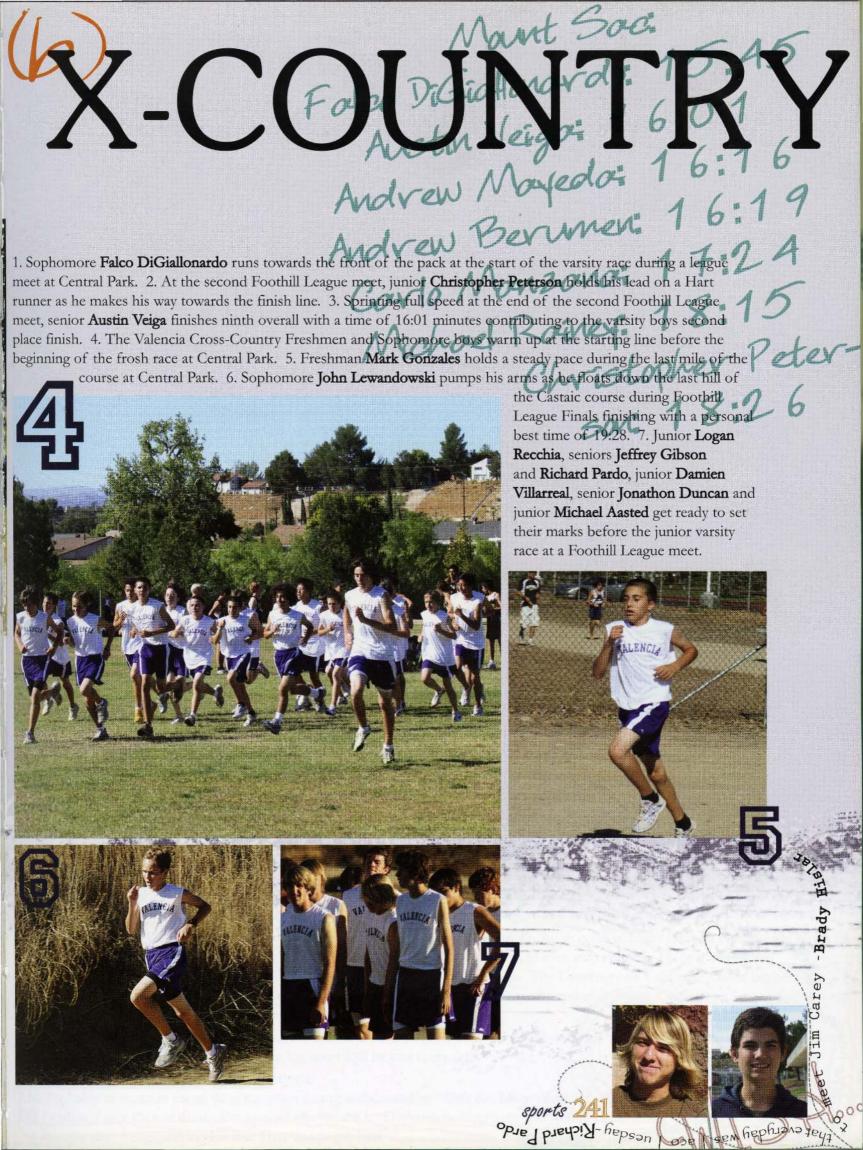

AB: I'm not sure what I'm doing for college yet, but I'm probably not going to run for a team.

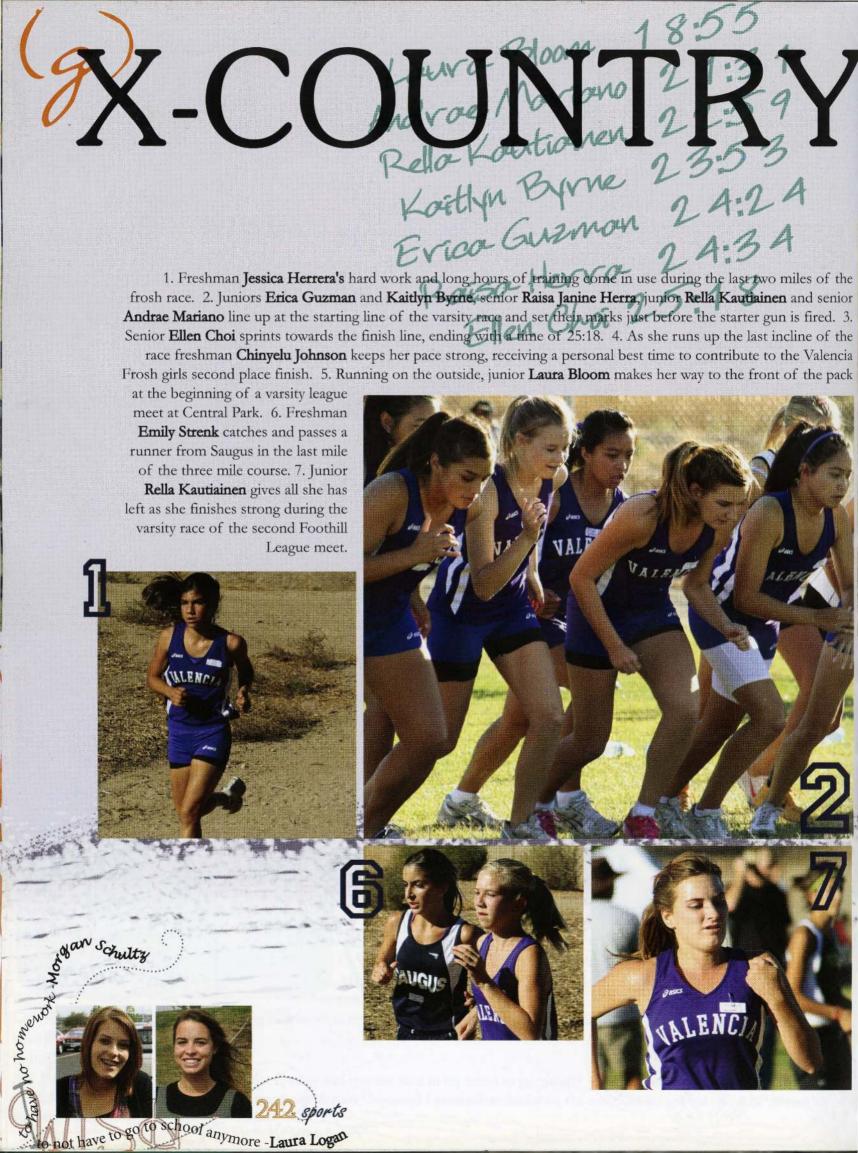

CM: I'm not sure if I would like to, especially because the college I want to go to is in Texas and running in the hearis not at all enjoyable.

What is your pre-meet routine?

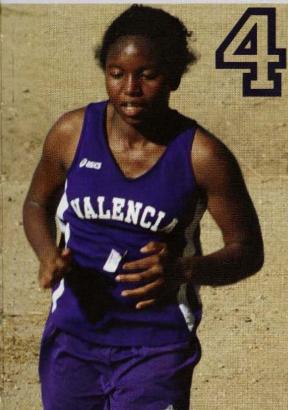

AB: I do a light jog, stretch, drink plenty of water and run the race in my mind to get myself propared.

CM: Seriously, as part of our pre-meet warm-up, Austin Veiga and I pretend we know tai chi and then we re tenact a seene from Ha Rad. We really do this. It works.

How long have you been running cross-country?

Andrae Mariano: I've been running for three years, since my sophomore year.

Laura Bloom: Four years.

What's your pre-meet routine?

AM: We warm-up for about a mile, stretch, do shake-ups, get the team together and talk the race out, get some water and head to the starting line.

LB: Eat loads of pasta the night before and drink a gallon of water the day of. Most importantly, I try not to get too nervous but still try to get excited about competing.

What do you love about your team?

AM: Wow. I absolutely love my team. They are wacky, fun and just have the best attitudes. I guess they have to be with all of the hard work we do.....

LB: You have to be crazy to want to run, but that's what makes us all have a good time; we are all crazy.

Do you plan on running in college? If yes, where?

AM: I'm not sure if I'll run on a team in college. I may just run intramurally or on my own, but I don't think that I could ever stop running. I love it too much.

LB: Yes, but I'm not sure where. The University of California, Santa Barbara is a dream school. They have such pretty running trails

Who is your biggest inspiration?

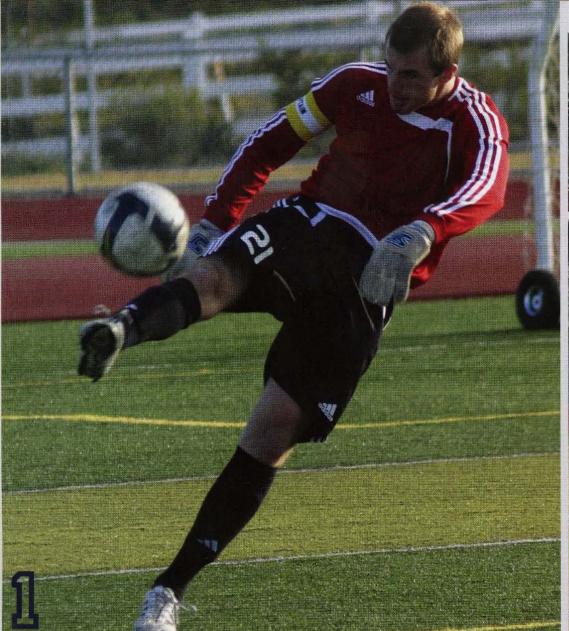

AM: Coach Connelly for sure. He is such a dedicated and hard working coach. I would not be where I am now a running without him.

LB: Steve Prefontaine. I love his intensity in his sport and he was really cute.

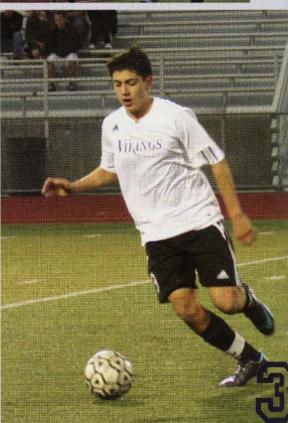

What is your most embarrassing moment?

AM: Probably at summer camp this year when I sang and danced to "Ain't No Mountain High Crough" in front of the whole team.

IB: Leading a race then realizing I've run off the course by fifty meters. Everyone was yelling at me that was going the wrong way, but I thought they were cheering for me. That was pretty bad.

Dear Daddy,

I hope that in everything I do I make you proud of me. I am a strong girl and you taught me that. You're not only my daddy you're my best friend and you made me the person I am today. Now I'm going to be graduating high school and I'm scared, I never thought I would have to go through something like this without you. Daddy you're my hero and my inspiration to do something good with my life. You're the one person that believed I could do anything I wanted. Dad I want you to know that I love you so much and I miss you every second of everyday the memories I have with you will stay with me the rest of my life, and hopefully one day my husband and my children will know how amazing you truly are.

Love you always your daughter,

Jacqueline Diana Jeffery

As Editors-in-Chief of the 2008-2009 Valencia High School, we would like to thank Valencia High School for their immense cooperation with our efforts to produce this pièce de résistance. Every interruption and request has been for a reason and we hope you see the fruits of every labor provided within these pages. Specifically, thank you to everyone in the administrative office for your support, patience and generous lending of resources; most particularly Dr. Priesz, the assistant principals, the registrar office, the counselors, the attendance office and the ASB office. Assistant principal Mr. Ferry was instrumental in the finalizing of pages and his prompt and unwavering support has been invaluable this past year. Many thanks go to our Taylor Publishing representative Mark Frederking for his incredibly inventive ideas and expert help (especially with the index) as well as to everyone at O'Connor Photography for their quality photographs. Thank you to the custodians for their assistance with the senior party and distribution.

Mr. Rosenast – Thank you as a friend, teacher and Second-Advisor-in-Command for your support and contributions in the most dire of times.

Ms. Stroh - Your humor and delightful work on behalf of yearbook have been and are greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy – The food, support and physical assistance have been essential to this book being completed on time; thank you for it all.

Kaithyn Harada — Under coercion you have shown to be most amenable and through it all you have proven a great friend and most staunch assistant; many, many thanks to you.

Melissa Tersigni — Many hours of your free time were occupied with proofs and indexing, thank you for all the hard work and support.

Ms. Dollman — We know, perhaps better than most, of your great dedication and immense sacrifices made in the name of yearbook.

Each year has been a pleasure, hard earned and well done. Thank you for each year and each extra hour we spent behind the walls.

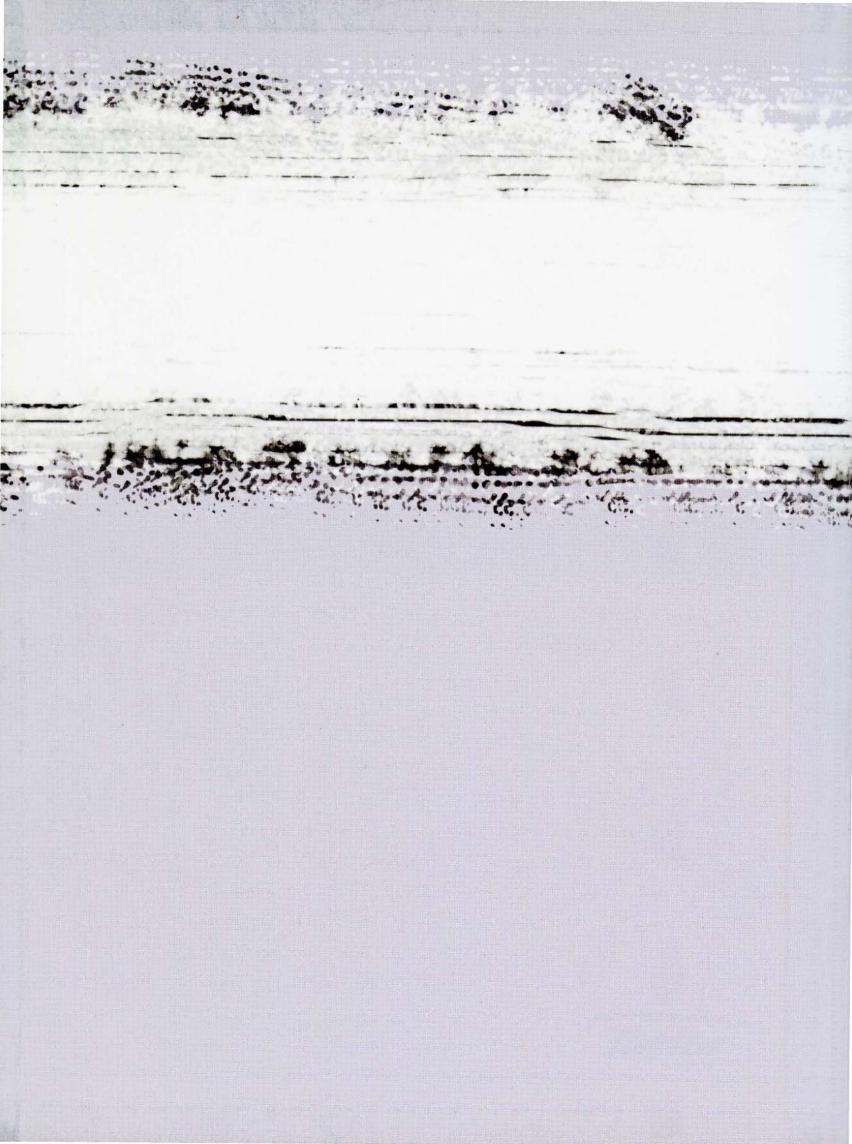

Over 4,000 long hours of hard work were devoted to this book during lunches, free times, sfter school, on weekends and vacations by an excellent few. We most sincerely thank you.

Your Editors-in-Chief: Christina Worth and Mackenzie Loy

... so thank you.
